PROPOSAL SENT TO GST COUNCIL

28% online gaming tax to stay shops into common service centres

Yogi woos investors with UP's law & order, infra

A GROUP OF ministers (GoM) on casinos, race courses and online gaming on Tuesday decided not to change its earlier recommendation for a uniform 28% tax on the full value of the 28% tax on the full value of the consideration on all the three. This paves the way for the GST Council to go for a 28% tax on online gaming on the full value, including prize money, both for skilled and unskilled games. Currently, an 18% tax is levied on the platform fee.

"All the states have reiterated their earlier stance (28% tax on full value) and the view will be communicated to the industry will rise if the proposal is implemented.

In the case of raccourses, the GoM had earlier said that GST should continue to be levied at the rate of 28% on the full value of bets pooled in the totalisator and placed with the bookmakers. In the case of casinos, GST should be applied at the rate of 28% on the full face value of the chips/coins purchased from the casino by a player, it said.

In the case of casinos, once GST is levied on the purchase of chips/coins (on face value), no further GST to apply to the value of bets placed in each round of betting, including those played with winnings of previous rounds, the GoM had said in the first report.
